

Division of Information Resources & Technology http://lane.stanford.edu/edtech • 650.723.6952

Technology Instructions: Desktop Sharing [1]

Setting Up

 $\textbf{1.} \ \, \textbf{Doubleclick the "Remote Desktop" icon on the desktop. This}$ starts Apple Remote Desktop.

2. Click on "Active Computers" to see a list of computers in M112.

3. Highlight desired computers to be observed.

APPLE + Click to select individual computers. APPLE + A to select all computers

Computers that are connected have a dark blue icon next to their name.

Document Updated: March 29th 2007

Educational Technology • Stanford University Medical Center

Division of Information Resources & Technology http://lane.stanford.edu/edtech • 650.723.6952

Viewing & Controlling Screens

Double-Click on a screen to go into Control/Observe mode Or Click on a screen, and then hit the Control Icon.

Make sure that this button is highlighted if you wish to get out of Control/Observe mode, click the X Button on the top left menu bar.

Document Updated: March 29th 2007

Division of Information Resources & Technology http://lane.stanford.edu/edtech • 650.723.6952

Locking & Unlocking Screens

Click on the Lock Screen button on the menu bar.

Choose lock or unlock from the drop down menu bar.

By hitting the Lock/Unlock Screen button without selecting any computers will Lock/Unlock all available computers.

If you select Individual computers and then hit the Lock/Unlock Screen button, the function will only target those specific computers.