

FIRST ANNUAL KALANITHI FICTION AWARD

The Palliative Care Section is pleased to announce a solicitation for short stories or poems of facing chronic or life limiting illness in honor of Paul Kalanithi.

Paul passed too soon, but left a wonderful legacy in the form of his memoir, When Breath Becomes Air. His creativity and commitment to finding meaning in the experience of illness inspired this award.

CONTEST DETAILS

RULES

Short Story:

Less than 2500 words

Poems:

Less than 50 lines

OPEN TO ALL

Stanford Community and students encouraged

DUE DATE

November 1, 2016

SUBMIT TO

joyli@stanford.edu

AWARD

The winner will receive not only the admiration of his or her colleagues, but also a small honorarium